Corps Awards Schofield Design-Build Contract

By Honolulu District Public Affairs

(FORT SHAFTER, HI NR-23-08) The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Honolulu District recently awarded a design-build contract with four separate projects to Niking Corporation, Wahiawa, Hawaii totaling $2,309,678 to renovate an existing building and design-build three other facilities on Schofield Barracks' East Range.

All the work is for contract W9128A-08-C-0011, FY08 OMA Pkg. A-010 Upgrade Directorate of Logistics (DOL) Building 6017, East Range, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

The work under the contract includes the design and renovation of the existing Building 6017, design and construction of a water blasting facility, design and construction of an allied trades facility, and design and construction of a compressed gas storage facility. Work on the buildings includes installation of motorized roll-up doors, fire suppression systems and support utilities.

The performance period is 365 calendar days.
