

You're Invited!

WHO: Interested Public and Neighboring Communities

WHAT: Kahalu'u Bay Ecosystem Restoration Study
Public Information and Scoping Meeting

WHEN: Thur., Dec. 12th, 5-6:30PM (Doors open at 4:30PM)

WHERE: In-person and virtual attendance options

In-Person: West Hawai'i Civic Center, Building G Conference Room
74-5044 Ane Keohokālole Highway Kailua-Kona, HI

Virtual: Online at <https://usace1.webex.com/meet/andrew.d.macinnes>
U.S. Toll Free: 1-844-800-2712, Meeting #: 1994 23 6467

WHY: The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Hawai'i County, Department of Parks and Recreation, and the Kohala Center, are developing aquatic ecosystem restoration measures in Kahalu'u Bay. We are looking for a diverse range of ideas to integrate into the study.

Please join us and share your ideas!

U.S. ARMY

US Army Corps of Engineers®

Scan for more info:

